
APPLICATION FORM: NSCNR COMMITTEES

NAME: _____

DATE of APPLICATION: _____

Applicants must submit this completed application form for consideration of Committee appointment.

Appointments will be determined on or before the initiation of the term of the appointment, The term which would apply to this appointment is outlined in the terms of reference and will begin upon Board appointment in the upcoming weeks.

This application is submitted for the following Committee(s):

Statutory Committees required by the Regulated Health Professions Act and Regulations:

- ☐ Registration and Licensing Committee
- ☐ Registration and Licensing Review Committee
- ☐ Complaints Committee
- ☐ Professional Conduct Committee
- ☐ Reinstatement Committee
- ☐ Practice Review Committee
- ☐ Fitness-to-Practice Committee

Standing Committees established by the NSCNR Board:

- ☐ Nominations and Appointments Committee
- ☐ Continued Education Committee
- ☐ Media Approval Committee

Candidates for NSCNR Committees are appointed in accordance with sections 21 and 22 of the NSCNR Bylaws. All registrant appointees must be in good standing with the regulator.

The NSCNR takes very seriously its role of public protection in regulating Chiropractic and Naturopathic health care in Nova Scotia. Committee members are expected to prepare and participate in all meetings and correspondence, to maintain confidentiality of all discussions, and to ensure open and fair discussions, without personal bias.

Please note that it is not expected that candidates will possess all of the ideal committee member competencies prior to being appointed. Furthermore, it is not the expectation that all Board and committee members possess all of the preferred committee competencies. Rather, the different competencies of committee members should complement each other and be diverse to represent the public of Nova Scotia.

The NSCNR provides ongoing training, orientation, and education opportunities both through the NSCNR and the NSRHPN. Committee members should be prepared to participate in committee-related orientation and professional development, once appointed to the NSCNR.

As part of your application, please self-reflect and rate your current skills in the competency areas for the committee to which you are applying. For more information on specific committee competencies or Terms of Reference, please email us at office@nscnr.ca .

Please provide any additional information that you would like the Committee or Board to review in consideration of your application:

Please attach your CV or resume to this application.

The Nova Scotia Regulator of Chiropractic and Naturopathy is committed to being an organization that is free of discrimination and values diversity. Our goal is to be an organization that is representative, at all levels, of the citizens we serve. We invite all interested and qualified candidates to apply.
